

V37/BFA101(P)/EE/201605

Practical Examination

Max. Marks : 100

HEAD STUDY RENDERING

Subject : Drawing from observation

Material List : Graphite Pencil, Lead Pencil, HB, 2B, 3B, 4B, 6B, 8B, 10B on 1/4 quarter size paper

Description

- Student will do head study of the model only face till shoulder.
- Drawing should be composed in proportionate to the size of paper.
- Drawing should not be oversized or of a small size.
- Drawing should be in proportion of the human anatomy.
- Drawing should be rendered in various tonal value and appropriate details required.
- Student will have to use graphite and lead pencil to draw and render.
- Paper should be neat and clean.
- Drawing should be completed in the allotted One day time.
- Drawing should represent highlight, light, middle tone, dark tone, reflection and shadow.

Note

No cell phones allowed during examination time.

Student will not be talking with their peers while working hours.

Model will pose for 30 minutes every sitting and will have a break of 10 min in between.

