

V37/BFA303(P)/EE/201605

Practical Examination

Max. Marks : 100

Make a painting in any medium or theme of contemporary life and way of living as your choice on given full imperial size paper or you can choose your base like canvas, paper mix media etc with consent of invigilator but your base-medium of your choice will not be reimbursed by the study centre or YCMOU. Visual interpretation should either be informal or formal art. (like figurative or non figurative narrative or non narrative art)

The work of painting may be based on sketches, photographs or other references like news papers, magazines etc. But it should be based on free interpretation of observed reality or the transformation of reality into images.

Conversation on Cell phones is not allowed during exams in studio premises. Study centre name and hall ticket no, subject should be written over back side of work.

